

Mirasol Launches New Website

April 14, 2010

Mirasol Resources Ltd. announces the launch of its new website at www.mirasolresources.com. The new site provides current information on Mirasol's flagship Joaquin and Virginia-Santa Rita properties as well as a number of generative gold and silver projects in Santa Cruz Province, Argentina, the Rubi copper porphyry target located in the El Salvador district of northern Chile, and current exploration activities.

We appreciate the support and interest of our friends and shareholders.
